RHYNE COLLEGE

There are signs we see every day. Many of them give direction, provide additional information, issue a warning, etc.

And we are surrounded by other types of signs. Some like the flag and the cross which have deep meaning for each of us.

But there are other signs as well. Some of them we take for granted. But they are so much a part of us. The buildings are signs of a growing community. Events are signs of vital activity. People are signs of a dynamic society. All around us are the signs that make our college so meaningful for us.

The 1992 HACA WA is about some of these signs that have made this 101st year a truly special one.

CENTENNIAL SPRING AT LR

With the advent of April, the Centennial year at Lenoir-Rhyne began to wind-down. The sun shone brightly on the Plaza as students crowded onto the concrete for an outdoor concert. It was a time for "grabbing the rays," talking with friends, and playing some ball on the lawn.

Dr. Edgar R. Trexler (below left) was the principal Commencement speaker. He had been editor of THE LUTHERAN since 1978. Dr. Trexler received an honorary degree from LR and on the previous day had been named Distinguished Alumnus of the Year. Graduation is a time of celebration and senior Ed Dolan (right) had champagne ready for the event.

YEAR 101 BEGINS

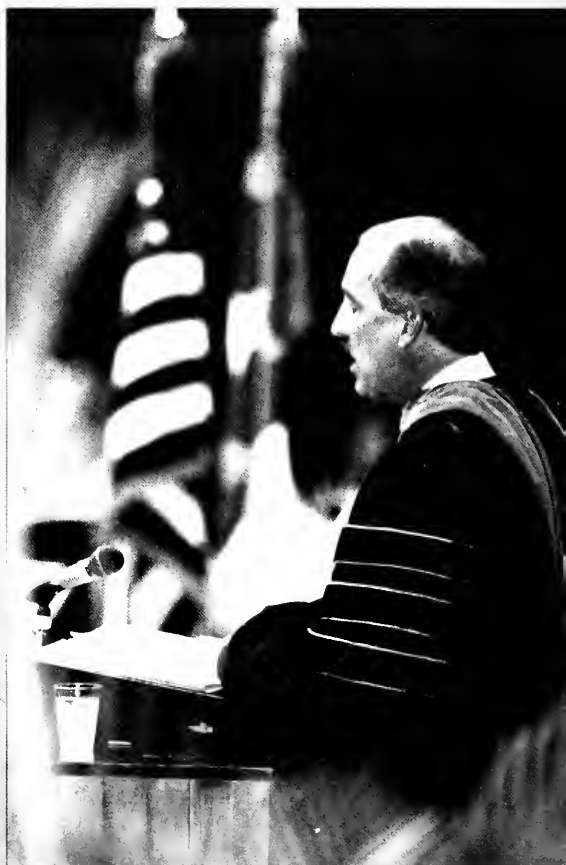

Sunday, September 1, 1991, was the birthday everyone had been waiting for. On September 1, 1891, Lenoir-Rhyland had been founded by four Lutheran pastors. Now, after many months of celebration, the big day was finally here for the centennial birthday!

President John Trainer (below right) presided over the festivities, which included the opening of the Cromer Centennial time capsule, buried in 1966.

The crowd began to gather on the Plaza (opposite top) for the 3:00 p.m. party. Ross Campbell, an LR freshman grandson of former college president Dr. Voigt R. Cromer, assisted President Trainer (opposite middle) in the opening of the capsule.

Dr. Ellis Boatmon, chairman of the Centennial Observance Committee, announced the contents of the capsule (opposite bottom).

Also a part of the afternoon was the signing of centennial posters by the artist, Tom Stine (below left).

Lenoir-Rhyne

A highlight of the September 4 program was a Celebration of Thanksgiving, conducted in Monroe Auditorium, by The Reverend Mark Menees, new bishop of the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA.

Bishop Menees (opposite page) was beginning his first day in office as presiding bishop. He received an honorary degree from Lenoir-Rhyne at the program.

The college A Capella Choir offered an anthem and the college Brass Ensemble provided music.

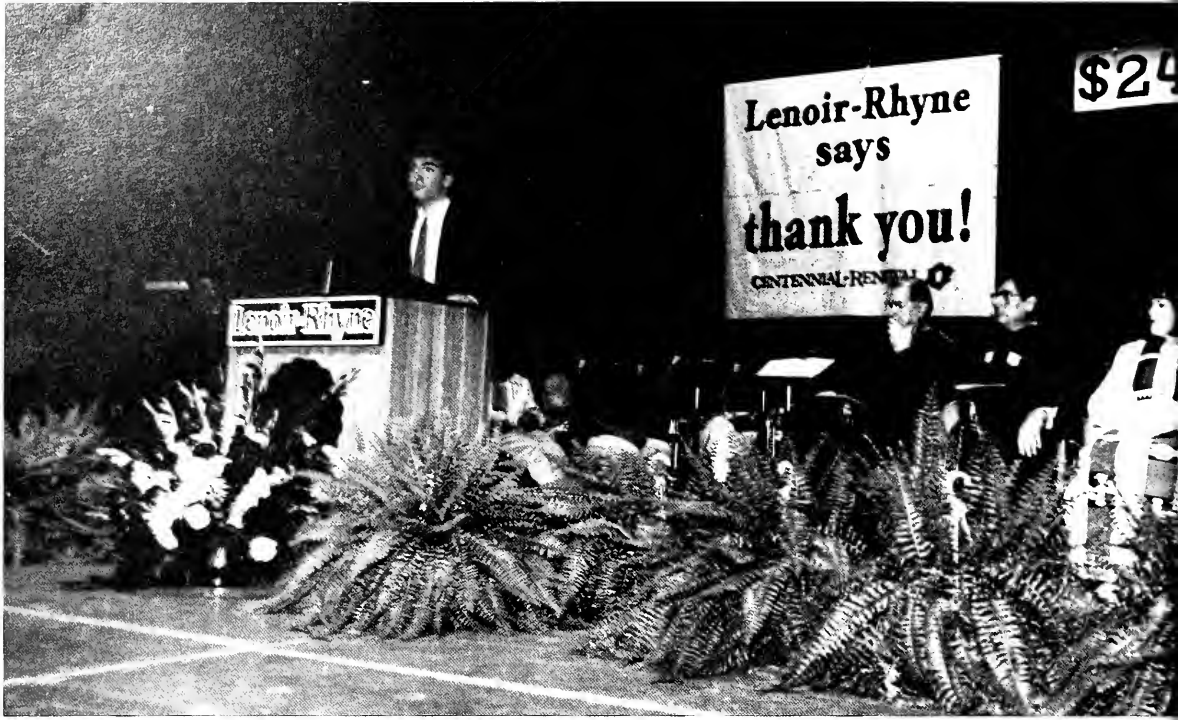

Among the many guests attending the college's birthday party were two former presidents (opposite top). Shown with John and Alice Trainer are Raymond Bost (left) and his wife Margaret, and Albert Anderson with his wife Anita. A portion of the large crowd gathered for ice cream and cake (opposite below). The college Singers, under the direction of E. Ray McNeely, offered popular music from the Plaza (right).

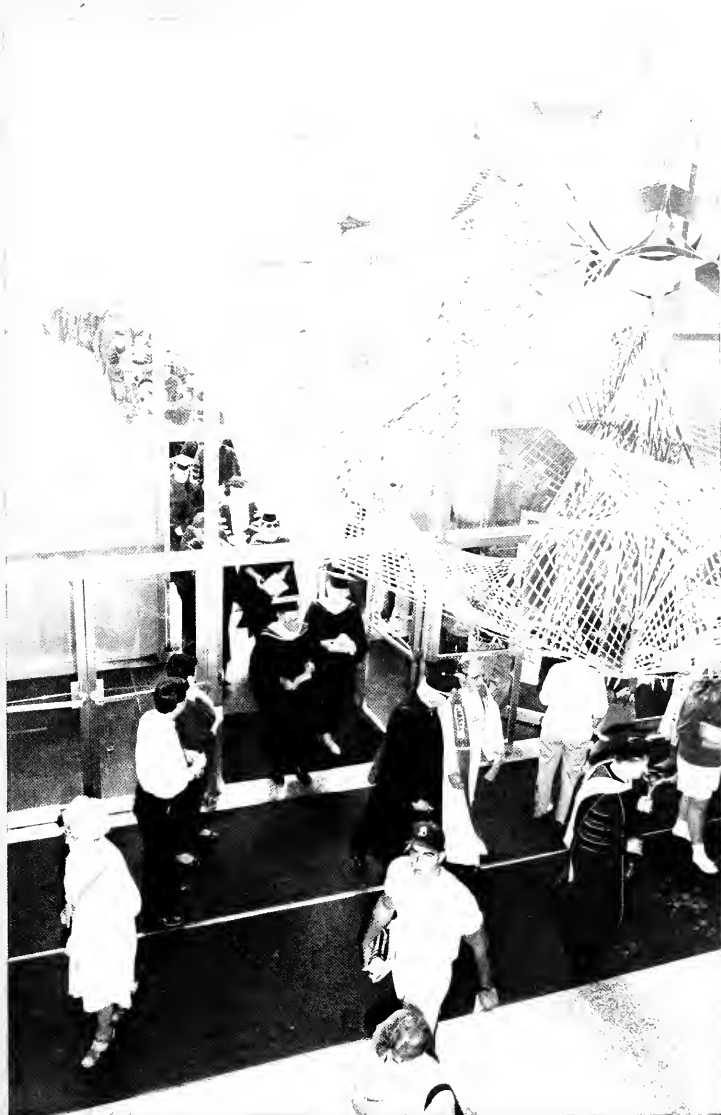

On Monday, September 2, 1991, the 101st year of Lenoir-Rhyne College began with the presentation of the Presidents' Convocation in Monroe Auditorium.

College Marshal Dr. William Shuford (right) led the faculty and platform party into the auditorium.

Speakers included President Trainer, Dr. Boatmon, and SGA President Jamie Treadaway (above). Dr. Larry Yoder and Chaplain Jennifer Minter offered prayer.

The college wind ensemble, under the direction of Professor Robert Fleming, offered music.

HOMECOMING HOEDOWN: A SCRAPBOOK

LR's big win over rival Presbyterian was the highlight of the day. Student Coach Richard Mallard (below) is seen exhorting his players from the sidelines.

A part of the Homecoming parade was the appearance on horseback (right) of Nicky Bruce and Joe Pruett.

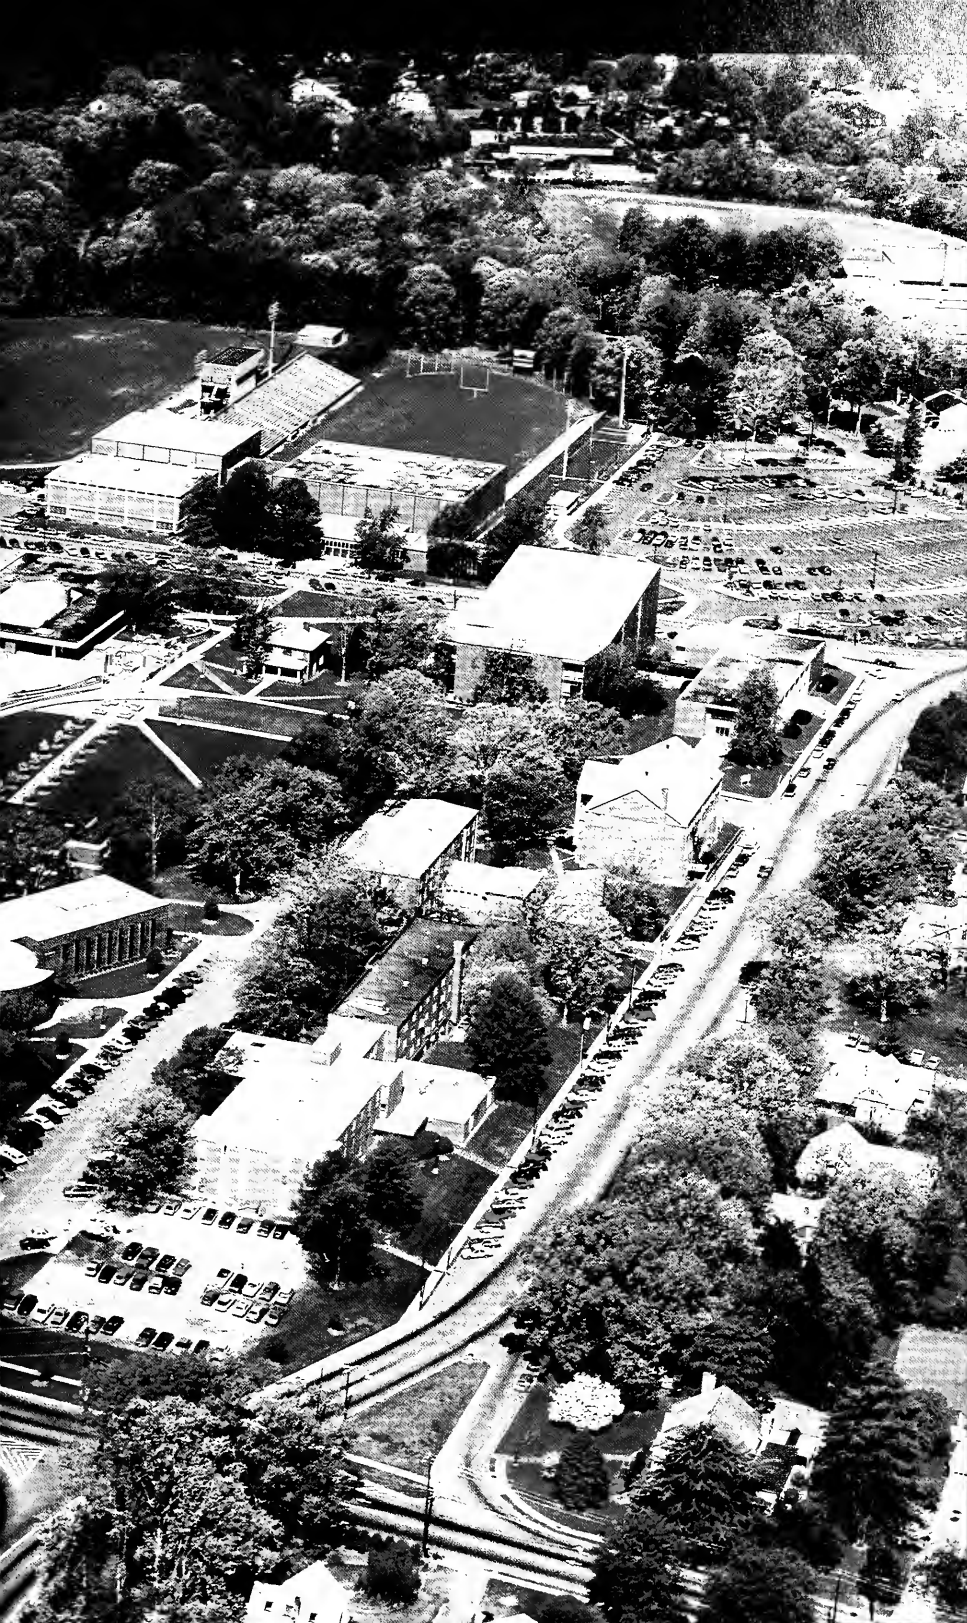

Second runner-up in the Homecoming Queen Court was senior Carol Dunton, escorted by her father, Mr. Robert Dunton.

As the Centennial came to a close early in the Fall semester, many other activities began to take place: intramurals, Fall baseball, and of course, soccer. The Soccer Bears, sporting new uniforms, performed (above) against Mars Hill. The women's soccer team practiced (opposite bottom) and senior Chris Nolan does stretching exercises with the help of trainer Beth Shaw (opposite above).

Intramurals are in high gear all year and a sign of the active life at LR. Keith Marcinkowski, a member of Oxen I, grabs a pass (opposite top). John Tobin and Scott Sale (opposite below) clown at croquet. The baseball Bears play a limited Fall schedule (above) and Garst Reese, soccer goalie, grabs one for LR (below).

STAR OF M*A*S*H DELIGHTED AUDIENCE

Wednesday, March 13, 1991, was an important evening at Lenoir-Rhyne as over 1000 people filled Monroe Auditorium in anticipation of the arrival of one of television's best-known personalities, Mike Farrell.

In an evening arranged by the Committee on the Observance of the Centennial, Farrell spoke on "An Exchange of Views." His remarks were peppered with references to the Persian Gulf War.

Best known for his role as B.J. in the long-running television series, "M*A*S*H" Farrell devoted the heart of his remarks to his social agenda, and began his comments by saying, "I consider myself to be an extraordinary lucky human being having been born in the United States of America."

Having served as a spokesman for CONCERN, a international refugee organization, Farrell shared many of his experiences with his audience. He told of his visits to Latin America, Central America, and Asia to work for peace.

In a brisk question-and-answer period after his speech, several in the audience challenged his stance on the Gulf War and on several social issues.

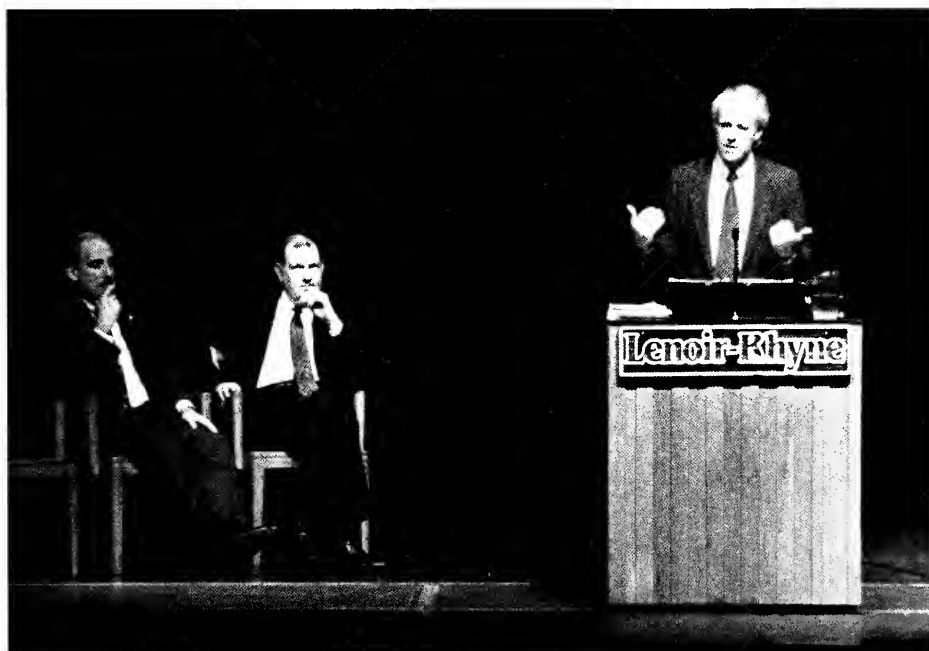

The questions followed at a reception for Farrell in the Cromer Center lobby afterward.

While known throughout the world as B.J. Hunnicutt, Farrell left Hickory and Lenoir-Rhyne having impressed many with his knowledge of social issues and his sincere interest in people.

GUESTS HIGHLIGHTED CENTENNIAL YEAR

Doug Marlette (above) delighted a large audience in April, 1991, in the Belk Centrum as he presented many of his cartoons and livened this with personal comments.

Marlette grew up in Mississippi and draws much material from his southern background. While at THE CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, Marlette received the Pulitzer Prize for one of his cartoons. He is now associated with a New York city newspaper.

Dr. Leon Lederman, a Nobel Prize winner in physics, visited the campus in February, 1991, and spoke from the Near's Lair to a large group assembled for the presentation.

The centennial year afforded the college community the opportunity to hear and to meet national personalities. Among them a Nobel Prize winner, a Pulitzer Prize recipient, the son of a great civil rights leader, and the discoverer of the TITANIC and the BISMARCK.

Dr. Robert Ballard came in April, 1991. Monroe Auditorium was packed with fans and admirers of one of the world's best known scientists.

A graduate of the University of California and the University of Hawaii, he received a doctorate from the University of Rhode Island. He serves as senior scientist for the Department of Ocean Engineering and director of the Center for Marine Exploration at the Woods Hole Institute in Massachusetts.

Ballard led the 1985 exploration that discovered the remains of R.M.S. TITANIC, a luxury liner that sank in the North Atlantic in 1912. He would later find the remains of the German battleship, the BISMARCK.

Author of numerous books, Ballard has served as host of numerous National Geographic specials on television.

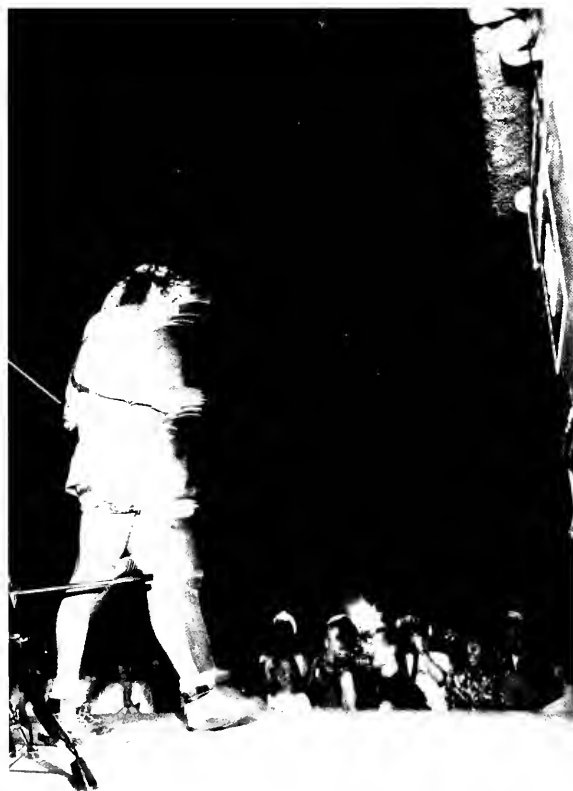

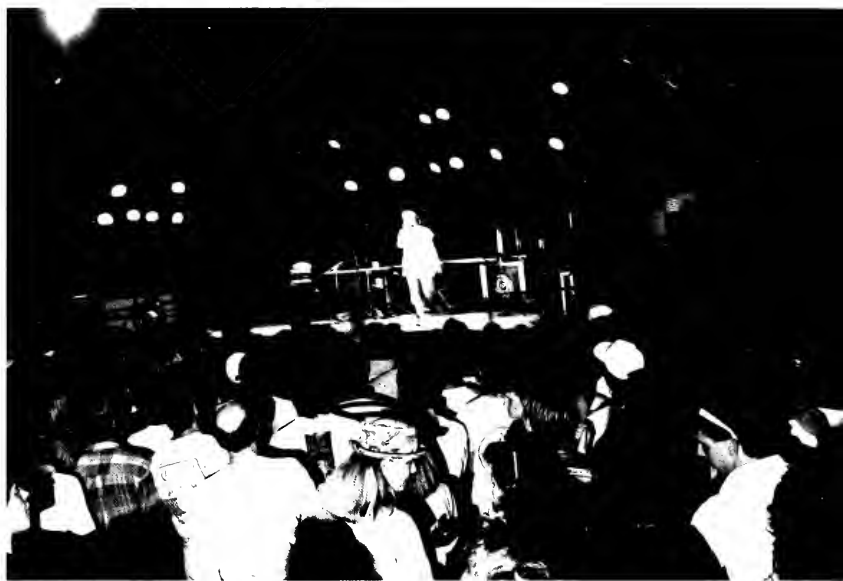

MTV STAR DRAWS CROWD

In mid-April, 1990, MTV comedian Pauly Shore brought his troupe to campus for an open-air concert.

Held on the football practice field, the concert attracted thousands of fans.

The concert was planned by students under the leadership of senior Tim Allen and was a part of the centennial observance.

CENTENNIAL SUN FUN

Spring time brings LR students outside and in April, 1991, a series of afternoon concerts was held in the Plaza. This also provided the opportunity for "soaking up the sun," visiting with friends, a little dancing, frisbee-playing, etc.

Mrs. Vivienne Stafford, alumni president, presided over the program which included the recognition of six individuals.

Dr. Edgar Trexler, a member of the class of 1959, was accorded the Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Editor of THE LUTHERAN, Dr. Trexler is widely recognized as an outstanding leader in the field of journalism. He received an honorary doctorate from LR in 1978.

Joining the staff of THE LUTHERAN in 1965 as features editor, Trexler was named editor of the magazine in 1987. Grounded in a calling by God, he has served that role with distinction and pride."

A Service Award was conferred upon Clarence Pugh, Sr., college vice president for development.

Pugh, an LR grad, has served his Alma Mater in several capacities and is a man "who truly loves the college and works long hours to help assure its continuing success."

The citation for Pugh read, "because of his extraordinary commitment, love, and dedication" to Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Dr. Robin Gatwood, retired professor of music and education, received a Service Award for "noteworthy leadership, contributions and service to the college." Recognition was made of

Dr. Gatwood's contributions to music included his involvement with college musicals and his formation of the popular dance band, the Kampus Kats.

The final two Service Awards went to Jeff L. Norris, Sr. and Dr. Ellis Boatmon, for their authorship of FAIR STAR, A CENTENNIAL HISTORY OF LENOIR-RHYNE COLLEGE, and for some 64 years of service to the institution (see picture below).

Norris, a 1952 LR graduate, vice president for research and planning, penned FAIR STAR, while Boatmon, a member of the history faculty since 1966, chose the photographs and wrote the captions.

In forty years at the college, Norris has held numerous administrative positions and is an active member of St. Andrews Lutheran Church. Boatmon, in his 26th year of service at Lenoir-Rhyne, recently served as chairman of the Centennial Observance Committee.

The Reverend Curtis Morehead offered the invocation; President John Trainer brought greetings; and Patti Whitener, director of alumni and parent relations; recognized special guests.

CENTENNIAL GRADUATION

The centennial class of Lenoir-Rhyne College graduated on May 12, 1991, amid much pomp and tradition (right, top).

To the strains of Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance," the processional began. College Marshal, Dr. William H. Shuford, led the trustees, faculty, staff, seniors, and platform party into Shuford Gym on a very warm Mother's Day afternoon.

For a class that had witnessed the Persian Gulf War there was a robust singing of the opening hymn, AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL. The scripture and prayer were offered by Dr. Michael McDaniel, recently returned to the faculty from having served as Bishop of the N.C. Synod of the ELCA.

Dr. Ellis Boatmon, retiring as chairman of the Centennial Observance Committee, raised the possibility that some of the senior class might be present for the bicentennial of the College in 2091. He expressed the hope they would inform everyone "how wonderful the centennial was."

Honorary degrees were conferred by Trustees chairman, Dr. David Hoyle, upon Bernard Trexler and Martin Yonts.

The main address was brought by the Reverend Edgar Trexler of Chicago, editor of THE LUTHERAN, a national church publication (right, bottom).

Degrees were then conferred on 307 graduates. First Honor Graduate, was Eric Scott West, an economics and mathematics major, with a perfect 4.00 grade point average.

Following the Alma Mater, the benediction was offered by the Reverend Donald Just, chaplain of the College.

The wind ensemble was directed by Professor Robert Fleming, interpreters were Danette Steelman-Bridges and Ruth Everett, and President John Trainer, Jr. presided.

It was very hot inside Shuford Gym. Some graduates (top) fanned themselves with their program. Others prayed for a quick end to the heat. The faculty stands (center) awaiting the arrival of the seniors. Afterward, friends and relatives mill about in front of the gym (bottom).

September 1, 1991, ushered in a special day in the history of Lenoir-Rhyne College, as the institution prepared to celebrate its 100th birthday.

The day began with a service of thanksgiving in Monroe Auditorium at 2:00 p.m. The Reverend Mark Menees was in his first day as the new Bishop of the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA. Choosing to spend a portion of that day with L-R, the College conferred on the Bishop an honorary degree.

The Wind Ensemble opened the ceremony with LEAD ON, O KING ETERNAL and the A Capella Choir later offering "O Day Full of Grace."

In his remarks Bishop Menees spoke of the glorious mission and history of Lenoir-Rhyne and challenged everyone to an even greater future.

The program concluded with LOVE DIVINE, ALL LOVES EXCELLING, as guests made their way from the auditorium to the Plaza for further ceremony.

The Wind Ensemble offered popular show tunes as a large crowd began forming in front of the Cromer Center at 3:15 p.m.

After the welcome by President Trainer and the invocation by Chaplain Menter, remarks were made by Harley Shuford, Sr. on the success of the campaign to raise $24,000,000. Shortly after Mr. Shuford concluded his comments, a parachutist dropped from the air onto the campus with special word that, at that moment, the College had raised $24,254,103. There was loud applause at the good news.

President Trainer invited Ross Campbell, an L-R freshman, to assist in the opening of the time capsule at the Cromer Center. Campbell is a grandson of the late Dr. Cromer.

The ensemble then performed a special arrangement of the ALMA MATER composed by retired music professor, Dr. Libby Gabriel.

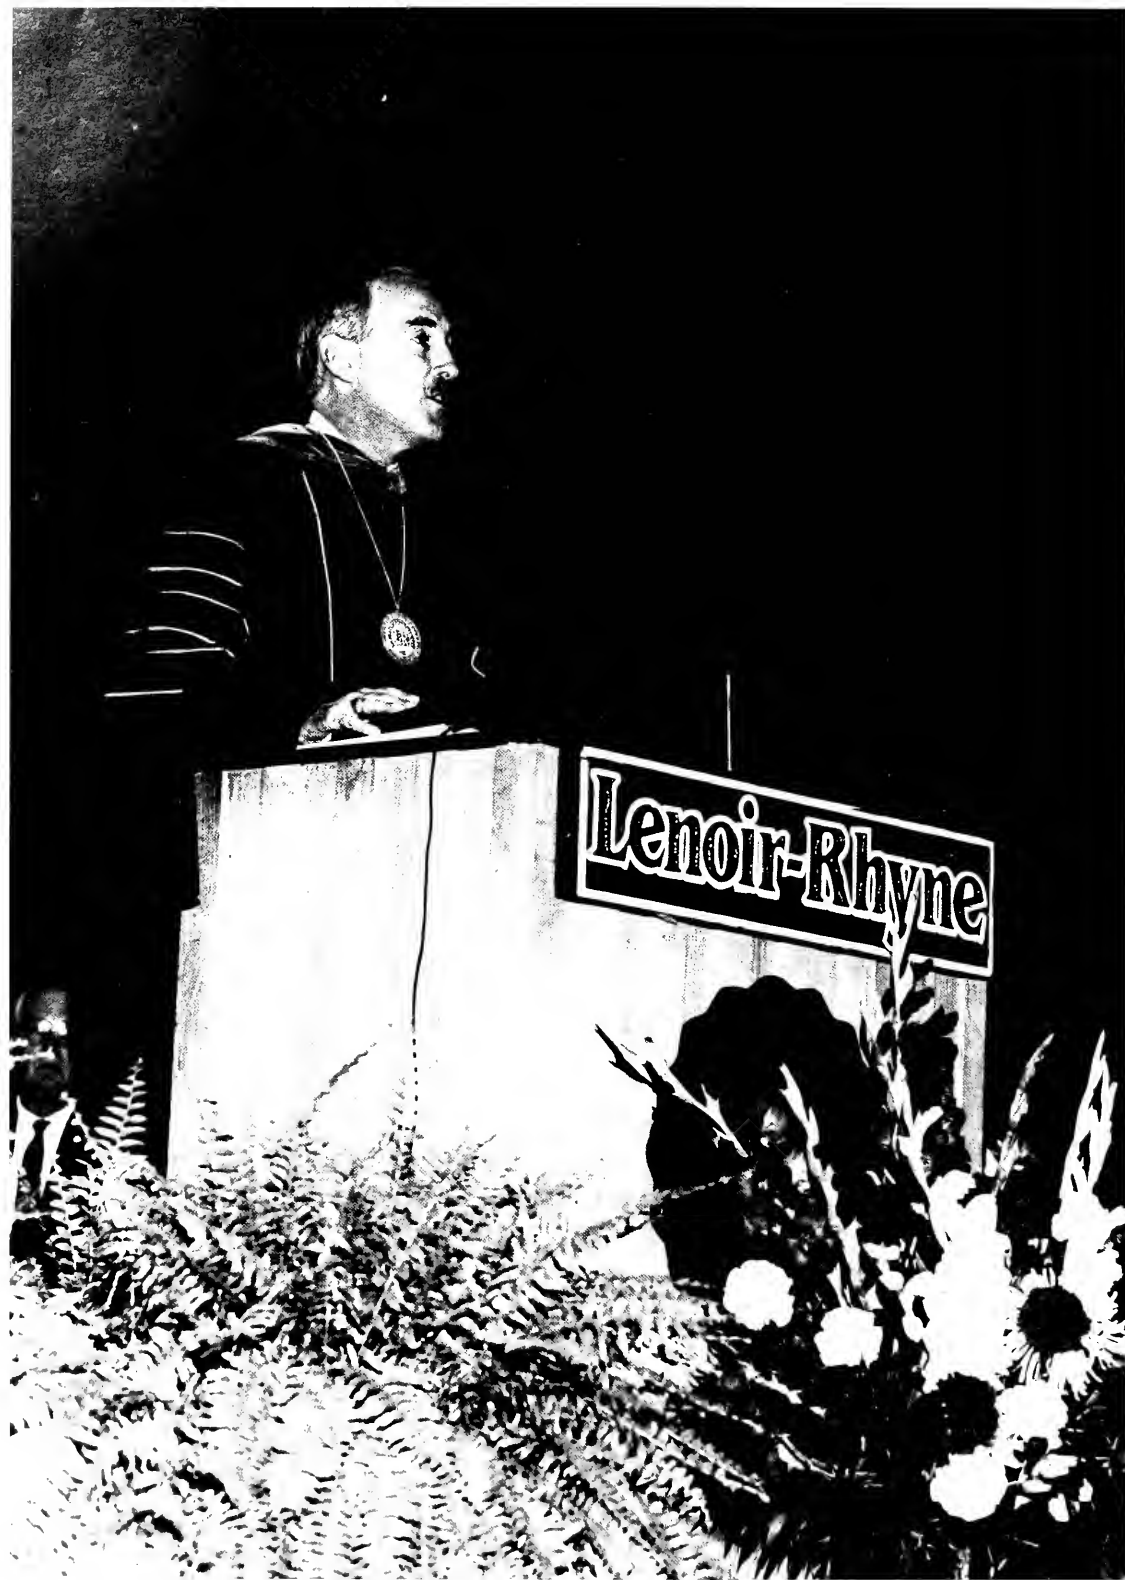

The traditional "Happy Birthday" was sung by all, after which the crowd gathered on the Quad for refreshments with music being provided by Dr. Robin Gatwood and the Kampus Kats.

It had been a wonderful centennial year, climaxed by an extraordinary birthday celebration.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY, LENOIR-RHYNE"

CENTENNIAL CLOSES, YEAR 101 BEGINS

The conclusion of the centennial of Lenoir-Rhyne College and the opening of the 101st year of the institution took place on the same date, September 2, 1991.

The Wind Ensemble provided processional music as the Board of Trustees, Faculty, Staff, and Platform party made their way into Monroe Auditorium. The student body and townspeople had gathered for the solemn occasion.

Strains of the powerful hymn, HOLY, HOLY, HOLY, were followed by the invocation, offered by Dr. Larry Yoder, a descendant of one of the college's founders.

Dr. John Trainer, Jr. welcomed the assembly and offered remarks on the centennial year and the new year that was dawning that morning. Dr. Ellis Boatmon followed with the observation that the past, present, and future were coming together as the college community looked forward to its new academic year.

Student Government president Jamie Treadaway pledged the student administration to the new year and he recognized members of the executive cabinet.

The Reverend Jennifer Menter, chaplain of the College, offered the benediction, followed by the Alma Mater and the recessional.

Professor Robert Fleming directed the ensemble and Professor Larry Lowder served as organist.

BENTON SHARES TRAVELS

Dr. Russell Benton has visited almost every country in the world and during the Fall term shared many of the highlights of these travels with the campus community in a special forum session.

A member of the Lenoir-Rhyne history department since 1967, Dr. Benton teaches in the area of European history and also teaches geography.

His travels qualify him to serve as adviser to the International Club and he serves as an unofficial adviser to Lenoir-Rhyne's foreign students.

KREPS SPEAKS AT FORUM

In November, 1991, Lenoir-Rhyne was host to a former U.S. Secretary of Commerce, when Dr. Juanita Kreps at a college convocation, and received an honorary degree from LR.

Speaking on the subject, "Policy-making in a Global Economy," Dr. Kreps stated, "In order to establish America's leadership, we must attend to problems at home such as education, unemployment and the homeless."

Kreps, also an economics professor, served on several boards of directors including the New York Stock Exchange, AT&T, Chrysler, Eastman-Kodak, J.C. Penney and UAL Corp.

WRITERS RICE, RICHARDSON VISIT LR

Among the many fine writers who visited Lenoir-Rhyne during the academic year was the poet Nola Richardson and the novelist Linda Lightsey Rice.

The visit of Linda Rice was a particularly warm one as the author of SOUTHERN EXPOSURE is a 1972 graduate of Lenoir-Rhyne.

In her opening remarks, Ms Rice noted that Lenoir-Rhyne provided three significant influences on her life: "The Kappa Delta, from whom I learned a great deal about friendship, the Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers and Sam Baker, and the English Department of 1968 to 1972 and the professors there."

With a masters in English from Virginia Commonwealth and course work completed for her doctorate at the University of Tennessee, Ms. Rice had joined the faculty at Tennessee.

Under contract to Bantam Doubleday Dell Publishing Group, her first novel SOUTHERN EXPOSURE was widely hailed by critics.

Nola Richardson was born and reared in the heart of the black scene in America. Originally associated with the Watts Writer's Workshop and a graduate of Cal State University, Dominguez Hills, she has done readings and led poetry workshops at various libraries, colleges, conventions and festivals.

Ms. Richardson has also worked in Los Angeles in the Poetry-in-the-Schools Program.

CENTER FOR THEOLOGY ESTABLISHED

One of the high moments of the academic year was the establishment of the Center For Theology, under the direction of Dr. Michael McDaniel, professor of religion at Lenoir-Rhyne and formerly Bishop of the North Carolina Synod of the ELCA.

The office of the Center is located on the college campus with the Department of Religion and Philosophy in the Russel House. The college library provides resources for Center-related research and Center activities (seminars, forums, conferences, etc.) are normally held in college facilities.

The creation of the Center marks an intensification of the historic focus of Lenoir-Rhyne upon Scripture, the Ecumenical Creeds, and the Reformation Confessions, and represents a reaffirmation of the intention of the school's founders to establish and maintain a Christian college.

It is also hoped that the Center may become an exciting regional and national resource for engendering the pursuit of clarity in understanding and passion in proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Speaking at the founding ceremonies of the Center was Dr. Harding Meyer (right), member and past director of the Institute for Ecumenical Research of Strasbourg, France. A world-renown author and speaker, Dr. Meyer spoke at the opening ceremony in the Belk Centrum on "World Lutheranism: Movement, Church or Communion?"

CALENDAR PROJECT "HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL"

"The Men of Lenoir-Rhyne, 1991-1992" went on sale in late August (1991) and was a big hit, selling almost one hundred copies the first day of publication.

The all-male calendar is rapidly becoming a fixture on college campuses all over America. At Lenoir-Rhyne it was begun by Kappa Delta Sorority in 1990. The college yearbook, the HACAWA, continued the calendar the following year.

The 1991-92 edition featured Joel Pruett, Fredrick Hurt, Clayton Payne, Tony Mallard, Steve Osborne, Jay Thompson, Todd Felts, Lee Pearce, and Irvin Dubose.

Also, John Jones, Jamie Kimrey, Keith Marcinkowski, Jason Howard, Brian Dunn, Mark Cunningham and Andy Ballentine. Jody Petty was featured on the cover.

The men were chosen by the professional studio of Insight Photographic of Hickory and photographed by James Labrenz, director of photography for the HACAWA.

Plans for the 1992-1993 calendar are complete and publication is slated for August (1992). The calendar will once again be sponsored by the yearbook and from private donations.

THE WAY IT WAS: COUP IN SOVIET UNION

Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991, as an eight-man emergency committee led by Vice President Gennady Yanayev took power in a coup attempt in the Soviet Union.

Crowds of perplexed people wandered among the many Soviet tanks (below right) parked behind the Red Square during the military coup hours.

Convoys of Soviet tanks (right) moved into Moscow, less than two miles from the Kremlin. The Communist hardliners who ousted Gorbachev sent the army's tanks rolling within a mile of the Russian Parliament building where Russian President Boris Yeltsin was staying.

Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the takeover, and resist they did. Constructing a protective human wall around Yeltsin's headquarters, his supporters demanded Gorbachev's return.

Before dawn on August 22, an Aeroflot jet arrived at Vnukovo airport, Moscow, bringing home Gorbachev and his entourage. The coup had failed, and before the day was through, all coup leaders were arrested except for Interior Minister Boris Pugo, who reportedly killed himself.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin (opposite page) waved the white-blue-and-red Russian tricolor flag from the Russian Federation building before a crowd of about 100,000 jubilant supporters celebrating the end of the three-day coup attempt. Bodyguards held bulletproof shields in front of him.

Freedom had come to the Soviet Union.

THE WAY IT WAS: CLARENCE THOMAS HEARING

Forty-three year old Clarence Thomas grew up poor, Black and Democratic in Pinpoint, Georgia, but later switched parties and became a controversial symbol of Black conservatism.

"Only in America," Thomas said after President Bush announced his nomination as the second Black justice on the Supreme Court. Thomas would succeed Thurgood Marshall, who had retired.

Prior to Thomas' nomination to the Supreme Court, he served as an assistant attorney general in Missouri, a legislative assistant to Sen. John Danforth (R-Mo.), seven years as chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and a judge of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia.

In addition to the controversy of Thomas' legal views, a charge of sexual harassment was brought against him by law professor Anita Hill. Thomas vehemently denied the allegations and said, "This is Kafkaesque. Enough is enough."

The nation was presented several days of debate on television in which Thomas, Anita Hill, the confirmation-process, and the Senate all seem to be on trial. The U.S. Senate eventually voted to confirm Clarence Thomas.

On October 18, 1991, Clarence Thomas became the 106th United States Supreme Court Justice.

THE WAY IT WAS: MIDEAST PEACE TALKS

Arabs and Israelis left Madrid, Spain, with mixed feelings of frustration and anticipation after an intense foray into the realm of peace. Israel and Syria were mired in recriminations, but promised to meet again.

The talks smashed a 43-year taboo on direct Israeli-Arab talks, setting in motion a process of face-to-face negotiations to resolve one of the most intractable regional conflicts in the world.

The United States and Soviet Union sponsored the November talks, and President Bush's assessment was: "We have a long way to go and interruptions will probably occur, but hopes are bright."

The brightest are for negotiations between Israel and the 1.7 million Palestinians living under its military rule in the West Bank and Gaza Strip. The dimmest are for a thaw between Israel and Syria, the region's strongest military powers, and most bitter foes. Syria refused an Israeli request to establish direct contacts to arrange the site for the next round of talks, scheduled later in November, 1991. Both sides, however, did agree to meet again if the United States comes up with an acceptable location.

THE WAY IT WAS: 1991

Opposite top: It was an historian's dream and a Secret Service agent's nightmare: five presidents of the United States in one place at the same time!

On November 5, 1991, former president Ronald Reagan threw open the doors of his presidential library some fifty miles from Los Angeles and invited a crowd of 4,200 guests. Among the guests was the President of the United States, George Bush, and three other former presidents: Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, and Richard Nixon.

The Reagan library occupies some 100 acres and at 153,000 square feet is the largest presidential library in the country. Opposite bottom: After all the twists, turns and tension, the closest of World Series ended in the closest of games.

The Minnesota Twins and Jack Morris squeezed past the Atlanta Braves 1-0 on pinch-hitter Gene Larkin's single in the bottom of the 10th inning on October 27, 1991, to win game 7 and end baseball's most dramatic odyssey.

Never before had three Series games gone into extra innings, and the Braves and Twins saved the best for last, matching zero for zero, pressure pitch for pitch, ven turning back bases-loaded threats in the same inning.

Below: Paul Simon is still singing after all these years! On August 15, 1991, Simon and a 17-piece band drawn from five nations stepped on stage in Central Park for a free concert lasting almost three hours.

The concert, attended by over 500,000 fans, was part of a longer trip planned by Simon that will end early next year in Africa.

TEMPERANCE CLASSIC CLOSED YEAR

In observance of its 10th anniversary of dinner theatre productions, the Lenoir-Rhyne Playmakers presented the temperance classic, TEN NIGHTS IN A BARROOM in April, 1991.

The musical comedy showed the woeful effects of demon rum. It was presented at Mull's Convention Center.

"SNOOPY" — BIG SUMMER HIT

In observance of the centennial of Lenoir-Rhyne and with the support of the Lineberger Center for Cultural and Educational Renewal, the Summer Theatre presented SNOOPY in late July-early August, 1991.

Based on Charles Schulz's comic strip, the two-act musical was directed by Dr. Ellis G. Boatmon with musical direction by John Coffey. Richard Mosteller designed the set and served as technical director with choreography by Joy McManus-Rodgers and costumes by Cathy Barnes. Robyn Read was stage manager.

"SWEETGRASS TRAIL" — OUTDOOR DRAMA

For its opening production of the 1991-1992 academic year, the LR Playmakers presented a story based on legend and lore, THE SWEETGRASS TRAIL.

The September (1991) show was co-authored by Dr. Marion Love, chairman of the Department of Art, Theatre Arts, and Communication, and Claudia Ward-Eller, Foothills Artistic Director.

Presenting stories of American Indians, the play was presented adjacent to the college soccer field. The audience was urged to wear comfortable shoes and take a blanket.

Below: White Buffalo (Greg Chappel) teaches Todd Elrod, playing a native American the secret to a balanced life. Peter West relates the Indian legend.

"SWEENEY TODD" WEAVES TALE OF HORROR

In November (1991) the Playmakers presented Stephen Sondheim's tale of lust and horror, SWEENEY TODD, THE DEMON BARBER OF FLEET STREET.

Presented in the Belk Centrum for seven performances, the musical was based on a book by Hugh Wheeler. The LR production was directed by Ray Mills with music direction by John Coffey.

The plot was not a gentle one. There was great violence, sadism, cannibalism and greed — all performed with high energy.

The large cast included Chuck Yoder in the title role with Tony McManus-Rodgers as Mrs. Lovett. Waitzel Smith, Jackie Finley, John Coffey, Steve Wood, Prudence Wood, Amy Gamlin and Jack Russell rounded out the leads.

Also in the company were Amelia Bumgarner, Jill Burns, William Carney, Greg Chappell, Terri Deal, Todd Elrod, Christy Gragg, Aims Hann, Holly Harrison and Kimberly Gill.

Also, Melea Lail, Ralph Mangum, Teddie Markett, Dana Puckett, Tom Richards, Mark Rodgers and Jennifer Worthen.

The set was designed by visiting artist Jane Patterson with Richard Mosteller as technical director. Nicole Beaver was assistant director and Diana Richardson was stage manager.

Cathy Barnes designed costumes, Craig Minich was lighting operator and Jean Cauthen was promotional coordinator.

Technical assistants were Allison Land, Christine Olson, Cris Rice, Brian Thee, and Mark Walker. Allison Land headed properties and Katrina Bernsdorf was assistant costumer.

Large audiences gave testimony to the play's appeal. The set and special effects were a highlight of the production.

CATAWBA COUNTY MEMORIES

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Playmakers offered CATAWBA COUNTY MEMORIES as its February offering and in tribute to the 150th anniversary of Catawba County, North Carolina.

Presented in Cline Gym, the tribute consisted of art, photography, dance, music as well as theatre. It was written and directed by Dr. Marion Love.

Right: Wyatt Bowman and Jeanne Fohl take part in the square-dance, which also involved members of the audience. Below: Barbie Kimberly and Tim Toscano portray 1842 Catawba County residents Lucinda and Eli Spencer. Opposite top: Barbie Kimberly admires a slice of history at the Catawba County Historical Museum as research for her role in MEMORIES. Opposite bottom: Beth Foutz in a scene from the production.

he soccer program, under the leadership of head coach Tom Melville, continues to grow and develop and once again the Bears were a vital part of the SAC tournament.

occer has come a long way at Lenoir-Rhyne as it continues to mature as a sport throughout the United States, where football and basketball have reigned as king.

he 1991 season was one of "almost." In fact, that might well describe the soccer program over the past three years, certainly the last two seasons.

alent abounds on the team. The coaching is solid. Wins come thick and fast. In fact, the '91 Bears lost only three games: UNC, Clemson, and Catawba.

nd yet in the final stretch of the SAC tournament and the district playoffs the Bears can not come up with the final championship. In the stretch it becomes, for the soccer Bears, a question of "almost" but not quite.

uck always has something to do with sport, but an even stronger factor is student leadership. The team itself must want the final win, the team itself must develop the leadership to win, the team must discipline itself to make the sacrifice to turn "almost" into reality.

upport for the soccer program was never higher. Loyal fans can be depended upon. The 1992 soccer Bears can turn "almost" into fact.

Faron Morrison delays Mars Hill's attack.

BEAR LINE

"BAD LUCK" BEARS MUSTER 6-5 SEASON

The story of the 1991 football Bears actually began in December, 1990, when John Perry announced that he was leaving Lenoir-Rhyne and returning to his alma mater Presbyterian as head coach. Perry took three of his assistant coaches with him.

The disruption in staff was a point of agony for the team. Spring drills would obviously be under new coaches, there would be new plays to learn, and since the identity of the new staff was still unknown, the direction the team would go was likewise an unknown factor.

After a long search, the head job went to Charles Forbes, formerly head coach at Guilford. Within a few weeks, Forbes' staff was in place and a new season was underway for LR.

Then came the sudden and tragic death of a teammate. The team and the campus mourned the loss of a young player with great potential.

The bad luck would not be over, however. With the advent of August, 1991 disturbing news began to surface of legal charges brought against former players. The situation was spread over the local press and the entire program appeared to receive a "black eye" from those on the outside. Morale was low even as the season began.

In their first contest, with East Stroudsburg, Forbes' Bears suffered a defeat. Would the Bears be able to mount an effective offense? Could the Bears win a game? These questions, and additional revelations about alleged misconduct among players, lay a heavy hand on the team's spirit.

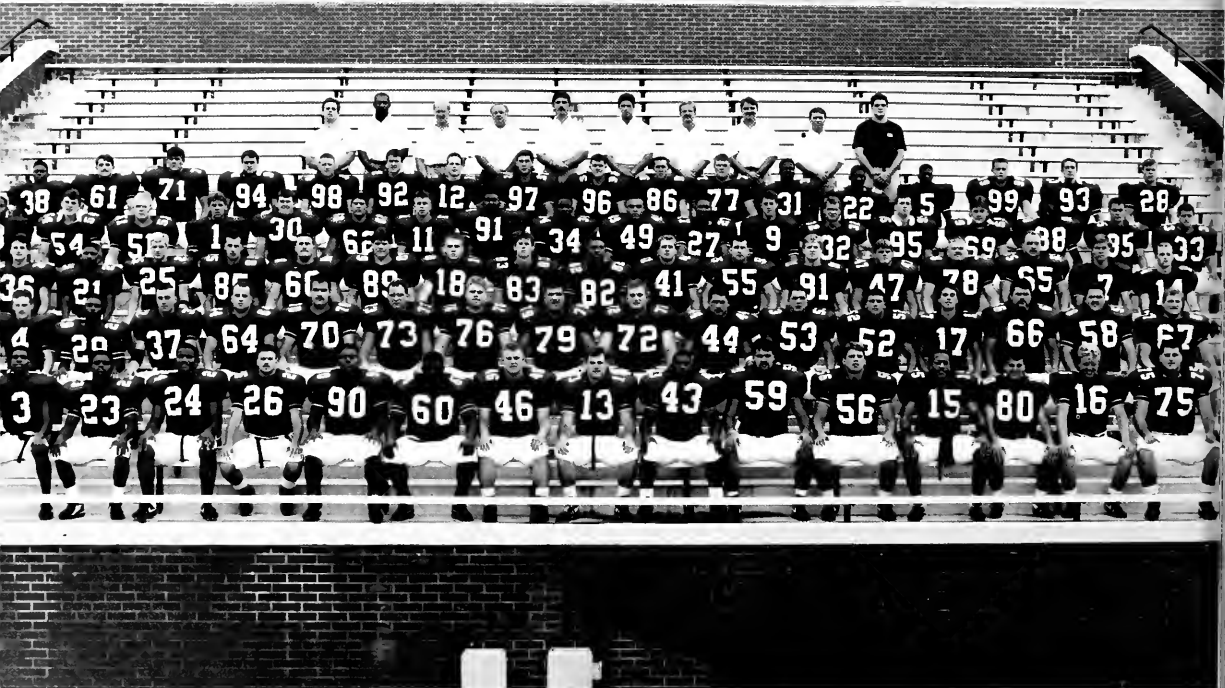

Then came a win over Newberry, a loss at the hands of Wofford, and then it was Homecoming on September 28 against Presbyterian. Perry and his staff were coming to town. The final victory over the Blue Hose had a marked effect.

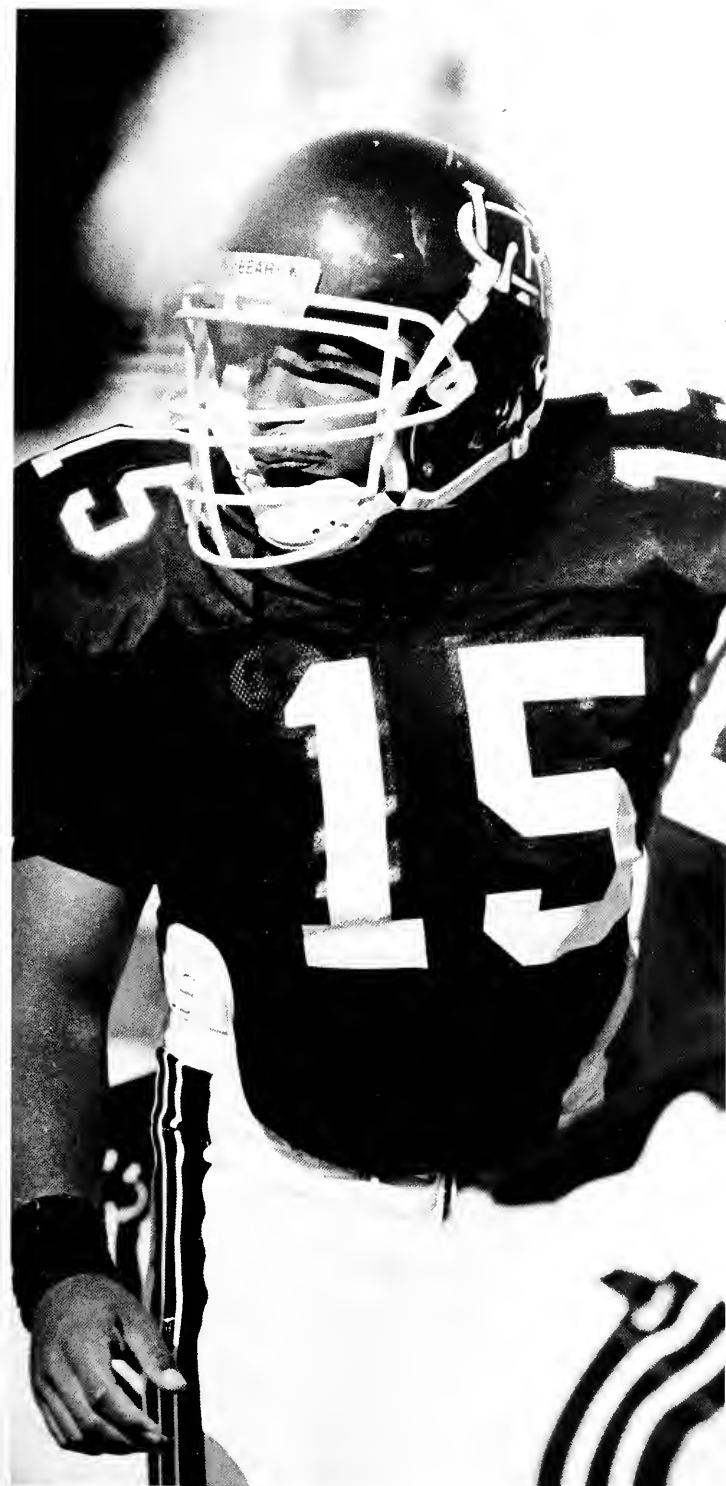

But the bad luck continued. Injuries to key players hit hard. But week after week for one month the Bears won every game. It appeared they had conquered the omen of bad luck. Five victories in a row raised the possibility LR might win the conference crown. A prospect that the Bad Luck Bears would not have thought possible a month earlier.

Then at Carson-Newman the Eagles defeated the Bears and that was followed by two painful losses to Mars Hill and Catawba. The season was over for the Bears. There would be no playoffs this year.

If ever a team had suffered adversity it was the '91 Bears. They were hurt by questions as to their discipline and, at times, their character. However the Bad Luck Bears rose above all of this and played their hearts out week after week. The college community may well be proud of their efforts.

The Bad Luck Bears did not win a championship. But to their fans who faithfully followed them, the team's courage and tenacity won the hearts of those who saw them play and saw them emerge as champions over not just bad luck but their own self-doubt.

DEDICATION

... FOR HIS SKILL AS A TEACHER
... FOR HIS CARING FOR OTHERS
... FOR HIS LOVE OF LIFE
the 1992 HACAWA is dedicated with admiration and affection to
DR. CHARLES WELLS

"He is a teacher — this was the first and most vivid impression he gave. He was one whose personality did not contract into his profession, but on the contrary his calling, for it was more than an occupational pursuit, broadened and streamed into his entire being. "He is a teacher and therefore one who revered the word, honored ideas, exalted thought and fostered the great dream. He is a teacher and knows with conviction that the hope of men lies not in their machines or in their power or in their uncultivated ego but in the refinement, mutuality and sensitivity which the thinker, poet, saint and dreamer awaken in them. He sought to redeem men, not by enlarging their mastery over the outer world but by cultivating their inner universe."

Morris Adler

"There are red-letter days in our lives when we meet people who thrill us like a fine poem, people whose handshake is brimful of unspoken sympathy, and whose sweet, rich natures impart to our eager, impatient spirits a wonderful restfulness which, in its essence, is divine. "The perplexities, irritations, and worries that have absorbed us pass like unpleasant dreams, and we wake to see with new eyes and hear with new ears the beauty and harmony of God's real word."

Helen Keller

IN MEMORIAM

Life is filled with goodbyes. The farewell that comes when a friend moves away, when war and disaster separate families and friends, and when graduation moves an entire class away from the college family.

But the saddest goodbye of all is that imposed by death. It seems the most permanent farewell of all.

And yet at the heart of the Christian faith is the ultimate triumph over death. The promise and hope of eternal life beyond the grave.

It is in the anticipation of that victory over death that we fondly remember those friends from whom our goodbyes are only temporary.

EDITOR'S PAGE

As of March, 1992, there had been no snow at LR for the school year, so we thought this was a nice reminder of a campus laden with snow, and also a reminder of how uncomplicated parking use to be.

It's hard to believe the year is almost at a close. But just as the signs were present at the beginning, a new set of signs is present now. Our lives continue to change along with the new environment in which we live.

I have had the opportunity to meet many new people this year. People who will forever last in my memory. To the underclassmen: Strive for what you want. You are the only person who can obtain your goal. Never give less than you can, and standup for what you feel is right. Don't be afraid to be heard.

To my fellow seniors: I wish you the best in all that you do. May God bless us as we part. Hold these years tender in your heart.

I would like to say a special thanks to John Austin for all his help and personal support. A special thanks to Dr. Ellis Boatmon for his hard work, guidance, commitment, and especially for allowing me the chance to grow.

Many thanks to James Labrenz, director of photography for the HACAWA. Working with James was a treat for all of us.

Thanks to Tammy Jones who helped us, Mrs. Dottie Crafton who was our typist and friend, Tom Neff and Doug Hinson from public relations who lent a hand, the editors of the LENOIR-RHYNEAN for their support, Michael Nischan for helping us with pictures, Bill Hall of Josten's for help "above and beyond," and to the folks in the business office for all their aid.

Special thanks for additional pictures to Dr. Dan Overcash, Jon Hurd (HICKORY DAILY RECORD), Jeff Willhelm (CATAWBA NEIGHBORS), Jennifer DeFini, Jonathan Ernst, Becky Kirkland (HICKORY DAILY RECORD), and the Playmakers office.

The 1992 HACAWA was a labor of love. But it was labor. Hard work performed by a few people without pay. We are proud of the '92 yearbook. If you are proud of it too, that will make our day.
